Deep Thoughts . . .

To me, it's a good idea to always carry two sacks of something when you walk around. That way, if anybody says, "Hey, can you give me a hand?" you can say, "Sorry got these sacks."

How come the dove gets to be the peace symbol? How about the pillow? It has more feathers than the dove, and it doesn't have that dangerous beak.

I guess of all my uncles, I liked Uncle Cave Man the best. We called him Uncle Cave Man because he lived in a cave and because sometimes he'd eat one of us. Later on we found out that he was a bear.

One thing kids like is to be tricked. For instance, I was going to take my nephew to Disneyland, but instead I drove him to an old burnt-out warehouse. "Oh no," I said, "Disneyland burnt down." He cried and cried, but I think that deep down, he thought it was a pretty good joke.

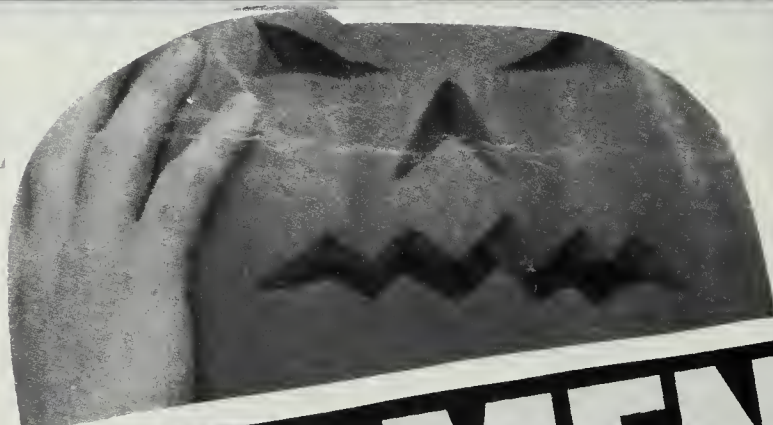

When a child asks, "Why is it raining?", I like to tell him that God is crying. When he asks, "Why is God crying?", I like to say, "Because of something you've done."

“Friends are like
fortune cookies...
it's what's inside
that counts.”
